A few words from our Warden and Council

Richmond County Council approved its 2026–2027 budget at a Special Council Meeting held on May 28, 2026. This balanced budget of just over $19 million reflects Council’s ongoing commitment to responsible financial management while continuing to invest in the services, infrastructure, and organizations that help make Richmond County a great place to live.

I am pleased that Council was able to maintain both residential and commercial tax rates for a fourth consecutive year. At a time when affordability remains a concern for many households, holding the line on tax rates while expanding our Low-Income Property Tax Exemption Program was an important priority during budget deliberations.

The budget continues support for many of the initiatives that strengthen our communities, including grants for community organizations, trails and waterfront development, public transit, healthcare, food security, seniors’ services, youth programs, tourism, and housing. We are also making significant investments in infrastructure, including the Richmond Arena retrofit project, water and sewer improvements, road paving partnerships, and expanded fire protection through the installation of dry hydrants.

Like all municipalities in Nova Scotia, Richmond County is also responsible for substantial mandatory provincial costs. More than $6 million of this year’s budget is allocated to education, policing, and assessment services.

On behalf of Council, I would like to thank municipal staff for their work throughout the budget process and residents for their ongoing engagement and support. Together, we continue to build a strong, vibrant, and affordable Richmond County.
