Richmond County's Volunteer of the Month Nomination Form

Volunteers are essential to the strength and vitality of Richmond County. Their passion and selfless dedication are at the heart of our community organizations.

Nominations for Volunteer of the Month will be open year-round through a simple form. Each month, one volunteer will be selected to receive a certificate and $150 in local gift cards of their choice, along with recognition through local media, Richmond Reflections, and the Municipality's website and Facebook page.

Nominees not selected will remain eligible for future months. Nominees must be Richmond County residents and may only be selected once. Prior to the Provincial Volunteer Banquet, one Volunteer of the Month will be chosen as the Richmond County Volunteer Representative.
