Committee Membership

- Discussion on options the Committee has with regards to requesting the resignation of Councillor Diggdon.

- As a committee to which the municipality approves members, legal advice is that the committee itself does not have the autonomy to force a resignation. However, a committee could request that the Councillor resign from the committee (although elected officials are advised to abstain from such a vote).

- Correspondence to Councillor Diggdon - Committee Co-Chairs, Warden Amanda Mombourquette and Maxine David will draft a short letter to Councillor Diggdon, requesting a response in a timely manner, that it be would be best for the committee at this time to accept Councillor Diggdon's resignation. He may choose to stay on the committee and we have to accept that as well.

- Amanda will reach out to Natalie to give her a heads up with what is going on. Even if Natalie votes against the request to have Councillor Diggdon resign, the committee still have majority of votes in favor of requesting his resignation.

Moved by Marcilyn Cianfarani, seconded by Maxine David to request that Councillor Diggdon resign from the Accessibility Committee. Four votes in favor, one abstention (Warden Mombourquette). Motion carried.
